

Nicolas Palominos

Spatial Analyst, Urban Designer & Architect

Research & Work portfolio available at npalomin.github.io

Education and Training

- 2016–
Present Doctoral Researcher in Advanced Spatial Analysis, Centre for Advanced Spatial Analysis, UCL, London.
 - PhD candidate working on thesis “Rethinking streets: A study of streetspace allocation metrics and street networks in London”
- 2011–2001 MSc in City Design and Social Science, LSE Cities programme, London School of Economics and Political Science, London.
 - Aproved with Merit
- 2011 Diploma in Urban and Environment Law, Universidad de Talca, Chile.

- 2007 Diploma in Urban Management and Governance, Pontificia Universidad Catolica, Chile.

- 1997–2004 Professional degree in Architecture, Pontificia Universidad Catolica, Chile.
 - Aproved with two votes of distinction
- 2015 Professional course, Latin American and Caribbean Institute for Economic and Social Planning, Chile.
 - Territorial Competitiveness Policy
- 2013 Professional course, Universidad Tecnologica Metropolitana, Chile.
 - Introduction to Geospatial Information Management
- 2010 Professional course, Pontificia Universidad Catolica, Chile.
 - Urban Plans and Planning Regulations

Professional and Academic experience

- 2019 Postgraduate Teaching Assistant, Centre for Advanced Spatial Analysis, UCL, London.
 - Module ‘Geographic Information Systems and Science’
- 2019–2020 Research Assistant, The Sir John Cass School of Architecture, London.
 - Coordinating survey and spatial analysis of industrial activities in Soutwark

- 2018–
Present Postgraduate Teaching Assistant, Bachelor of Arts and Science, UCL, London.
 - Module 'Understanding cities and their spatial cultures'
- 2018–2019 Research Assistant, Bartlett School of Planning and School of Architecture, UCL, London.
 - Researching 'Planning Urban Manufacturing'
- 2018 Research Assistant, Circular Economy Lab UCL, London.
 - Researching 'Cities of Making'
- 2013–2016 Teaching Associate, School of Architecture, UTEM, Chile.
 - Module 'Introduction to Urban Studies'
- 2012 Researcher, LSE Cities, London.
 - Leading the graphic design of the Ordinary Streets project, which explored the spaces, culture and economies of a high street in London
- 2009–2016 Designer and Analyst, The Comptroller General of the Republic of Chile, Chile.
 - Designing digital solutions to foster civic engagement through the provision of geospatial information
 - Conducting Regulatory Assessments of urban planning instruments of different administrative levels
- 2007–2009 Project Manager & Designer, Municipality of Penalolen, Chile.
 - Leading the multidisciplinary task force that designed and implemented a government urban renovation program in a deprived neighbourhood
- 2006–2007 Project Manager & Designer, Ministry of Housing and Planning, Chile.
 - Leading the multidisciplinary task force that designed the urban master plan within a government urban renovation program in a deprived neighbourhood
- 2004–
Present Designer & Project Manager, Independent professional practice, Chile.
 - Designing, managing and coordinating various small-scale projects
 - Collaborated with firms in projects of public interest.
 - Co-founded CAMINABLE, a consultancy on urban design and planning.

Grants and awards

- 2020 Research project 'Sustainable Mobility and Urban Planning Analytics', Bartlett Innovation Fund, London.
- 2019 Parcel Hack 2019 'Hacking the last-mile', CitySprint, the EPSRC funded FTC2050, Transport for London (TfL) and Geovation, London.
 - First place
- 2016 Becas Chile PhD Scholarship, National Commission for Scientific and Technological Research, Chile.
- 2011 Becas Chile Master Scholarship, National Commission for Scientific and Technological Research, Chile.